

Call for Nominations 2021 Health Professions Educator Award

The Health Professions Educator Award acknowledges the sustained excellence of health professions education and scholarship within the Faculty of Health Sciences, McMaster University.

Nominations are welcome from across the Faculty of Health Sciences although it is expected that nominees will be senior faculty and leaders in their respective programs or departments that have made substantial, sustained contributions to education. This may include:

- innovation in clinical/classroom teaching,
- graduate supervision,
- mentorship, or
- education scholarship/research.

Application

1. Cover page (see page 2)
2. Letters from two nominators that articulate with examples the substantial, sustained contribution of the nominee to health professions education at McMaster.
3. Nominee's curriculum vitae

Previous nominees are eligible for re-submission.

The application should be submitted to: merit@mcmaster.ca as a single .pdf file labelled <nominee's last name>.2021HPEA

Deadline for applications is April 16, 2021.
